Consumer Affairs & Public Distribution Department

Subject: Distribution of free relief ration.

Government order No. 37 -CA&PD of 2015

Dated: 20 .04.2015

Sanction was accorded to the distribution of free relief ration for a period of six months @ 210 kg per family in favour of flood affected people as verified by respective Dy. Commissioners of the State vide Government order No. 3-Rev (Camp) of 2014 dated 17.09.2014. However, many complaints poured in the Administrative Department alleging therein that sanctioned scale of ration has not been distributed fairly as many beneficiaries have been left out or provided free ration for 3 or 4 months only.

In order to ascertain the factual position, a committee of following officers headed by Director, Finance, Consumer Affairs & Public Distribution Department is hereby constituted who will submit a detailed report to this department regarding distribution of free relief ration to the affected people and amount spent on procurement of ration from Food Corporation of India keeping in view the fact that budgetary amount for purchase of ration as per census 2001 was also available with the Directors:

1. Additional Secretary to Govt.
Consumer Affairs & Public Distribution Department
2. Deputy Director (Planning), Consumer Affairs & Public Distribution Department.

The committee after proper scrutinization of the records including bills raised by the Directors under SDRF shall submit its report within 21 days positively.

By order of the Government of Jammu & Kashmir.
